Tony Kenny is one of Ireland's most beloved artists, having sung in countless musical productions such as Joseph, starred in the world famous Jurys Irish Cabaret for more than 20 years with the legendary comedian, Hal Roach - Ireland's King of Blarney, and won many awards for his work over the course of decades. Kenny has entertained millions of people in Ireland, and across the U.S. in dozens of coast to coast tours, including Carnegie Hall.

Richie Hayes has been in the entertainment world from the age of four and has appeared in all aspects of the entertainment industry including Theatre and Television, and finished as a runner-up in The Voice. Richie is that rare commodity: a talented singer and brilliant comedian. His debut single, One Voice, reached #3 in iTunes charts, and he subsequently had four top ten singles in the Irish Charts. His sensational new album, What About Me, is now on general release.

Bernadette Ruddy, the girl with the golden voice and golden red hair, hails from the West of Ireland. A small village called Attymachugh at the foot of the Ox Mountains gave birth to this unique female voice that is turning heads throughout Ireland. With her rich earthy tones and touching delivery, Bernadette is the ultimate Irish female ballad singer of today; truly an Ambassador of Song for Ireland. Pete St. John, one of Ireland's most beloved songwriters (composer of such blockbusters as The Fields of Athenry and Dublin in the Rare Old Times), recognized Bernadette's incredible talent, wrote a song especially for her, and which she then recorded: A Song for Mayo.

Added into this stellar mix of Irish artists are the Dublin City Dancers. These dancing athletes have performed in such troupes as Riverdance, Lord of the Dance, Dance of Desire and Battle of the Dance, and traveled the world performing the native dances of Ireland. Their spinning feet and precision movements will take your breath away! Dublin Trinity Band is one of Ireland's best folk bands. From busking on O'Connell Street to playing at the National Concert Hall, this group has wowed audiences of all sizes for years.
